

THE IDAHO STATE SONG

♫ HERE WE HAVE IDAHO ♫

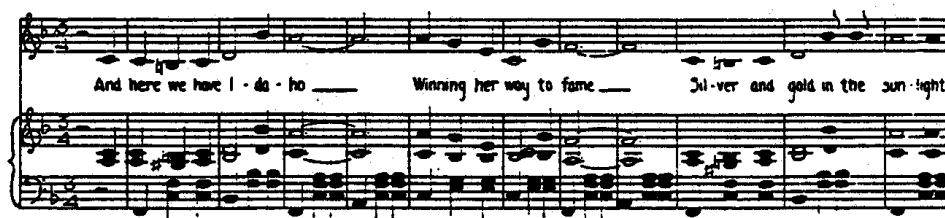

"It's getting near time for me to say good-bye. But before I go, I will tell you a little about our song. The music for the Idaho State Song was written by Sallie Hume Douglas under the title "Garden of Paradise." In 1917, McKinley Helm, a student at the University of Idaho, wrote a verse to this tune for a competition and won first prize. The song, called "Our Idaho," became the University Alma Mater. The title was changed to "Here We Have Idaho," and the music was designated by the Idaho Legislature as the State Song in 1931. My voice cracks a little, and I can't hit all of the high notes, but I'll share a verse or two with you. . . .

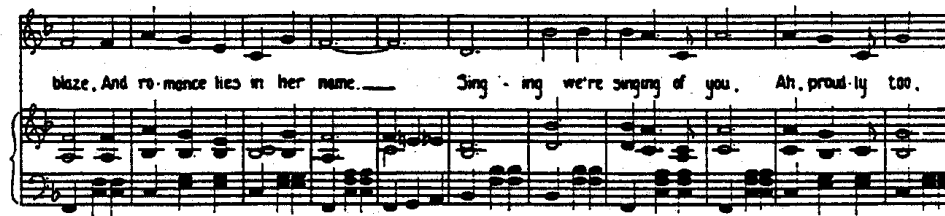

You've heard of the wonders our land does possess Its beau-ti-ful val-leys and hills The There's on-ly one state in this great land of ours Where i-deals can be re-a-lized The ma-jes-tic for-ests where nature a-bounds We love every nook and all pi-o-neers made it so for you and me A le-ga-cy we'll al-ways prize

And here we have I-da-ho Winning her way to fame Sil-ver and gold in the sun-light blaze, And ro-mance lies in her name. Sing-ing we're singing of you, Ah, proud-ly too.

All our lives thru, we'll go Sing-ing, Sing-ing of you, Sing-ing of I-da-ho

"Good-bye."
